

Unite Overview:

Unite is focused on "Revitalizing Squadrons." Unit commanders are in the best position to execute resources that benefit Airmen under their authority. This initiative provides commanders with the funding to initiate programs that help their squadron. This program will benefit all Airmen in a unit; Active, Reserve, and Civilian (appropriated and non-appropriated employees) directly assigned to the squadron.

Unite funds are allocated based on per capita end strength, according to the Air Force Personnel Center (AFPC), Retrieval Applications Web (RAW).

Funds for Fun!

We don't have time for recreational activities.

- ▶ The Air Force requires leaders to take care of their airmen—mental, physical, social and spiritual.
- ▶ Science shows that having fun enhances work productivity, increases confidence, builds trust, improves communication and reduces stress.
- ▶ Connection is a proven protective factor of violence and suicide prevention.
- ▶ Feedback from participants proves that Unite works!

FAQ...

Who can use Unite funds? All active duty, reservists and civilians (APF and NAF) assigned to an Air Force squadron, unit, or staff group are allowed to utilize Unite funds. Your installation's Community Cohesion Coordinator (C3) can give you all the info.

What can Unite funds be used for? Unite funding can be used for activities and food. The activities must be team building in nature and the food must be offered in conjunction with the activity.

Can Unite funds be used to purchase food for our meeting or resiliency training? Unite is intended to provide a teambuilding experience and must be based on group recreation. However, if a team building recreational event occurs before or after your meeting or training – the recreational portion of the event may qualify for Unite funds.

Builds morale, encourages teamwork develops communication, & so much more!

325 MXS @ the DDR Marina

“It was great spending time with all the other shops and was a huge moral booster!”

325 CES: Picnic at the Marina

“Fun was had by all!”

325 MDSS @ Mexico Beach Veteran's Park

“It was a lot of fun to hang out and not be on a structured timeline!”

AFNCOA: Pontooning to Shell Island

“Unite is a great program that allowed us to have some much needed time off!”

325 LRS @ Mexico Beach Veteran's Park

“This so cool! There are so many things to do!”

325 FW Staff: Glass Blowing

Sometimes we have to step back and remember that we do not always know how to do every task put in front of us. Many times we need to relax and reach out to the expert to guide us like in the glass blowing event.
